

ABLE WEBSITE USE POLICIES

Thank you for visiting the website of ABLE Charter Schools (ABLE) and for reviewing our website policies. By visiting this website, you are accepting all these policies including the terms and conditions of using our website as described below.

Privacy

This website provides access to applications and functions for submitting certain information to ABLE. This information may be personal in nature such as name, address, phone number, and financial information. Personal information is transmitted and collected only as necessary to perform ABLE's duties and obligations. As examples, ABLE uses this information to administer educational programs, provide services and goods to students or parents, and maintain files and other records. By law, personal information may be protected from public disclosure for privacy purposes. Therefore, ABLE may disclose this information only when expressly authorized or required by law.

Security

ABLE implements safeguards to help ensure the continuous integrity of its electronic infrastructure and to prevent risk of public access or misuse. While ABLE takes secure measures for receiving information submitted through electronic means, we cannot guarantee as fail-proof the security of information provided through its website at all times. Nor can ABLE warrant the accuracy of all the content on its website. Information provided on this website should not be construed in any way as giving business, legal, or other advice. Unauthorized attempts to modify any information maintained by ABLE on or through its website, to defeat or circumvent security features, or to utilize electronic information for other than its intended purposes, are prohibited and may result in criminal or other legal action.

Links To Other Sites

When the ABLE website links to other sites providing services or information, you are no longer on our site and are subject to the terms and privacy policy of the new sites. ABLE accepts no responsibility for the content, use or accessibility of external websites or external documents linked or made available on its website. Certain functions on our website such as payment processing are handled by other third parties and subject to their own terms and conditions of use. Accessing and using any third-party links or functions is the sole responsibility of the user, and ABLE assumes no liability whatsoever for any use of those links and functions.

Refunds

ABLE will cooperate and attempt to resolve any written request for refunds resulting from payment processing errors made through its website, within five (5) business days of the request.

Copyright Material and Logos

Information including copies from this website may only be used for educational or public purposes and shall not be used for any commercial purpose whatsoever. Without the prior written permission of ABLE, you may not use any copyright material from this website, and you may not use any logo, trademark, or service mark. Modifying information obtained from our website, in any manner, is expressly prohibited without ABLE's consent. No information on this website shall be used in any manner that causes any harm or injury to ABLE including, but not limited to, harm or injury to its reputation or good will and regardless of whether there is any monetary damage suffered by ABLE.

Limitation of ABLE's Liability

ABLE makes no claims, promises, or guarantees about the absolute accuracy, completeness, or adequacy of the contents or function of this website and expressly disclaims liability for errors and omissions in the contents or function of this website. No warranty of any kind, implied, expressed, or statutory, including, but not limited to, the warranties of non-infringement of third party rights, title, merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, and freedom from computer virus, is given with respect to the contents or function of this website or any hyperlinks to other Internet resources. References or links in this website to any commercial products, processes, or services, or the use of any other third-party business or process are for the information and convenience of the public, and do not constitute endorsement, recommendation, or favoring by ABLE, or its employees or agents.

Contact

If you have reason to believe any information on this website is inaccurate, please contact ABLE's Chief Compliance Officer at (209) 478-1600. Please note that ABLE may revise these policies any time without notice.
